Re: In re: Theodore Leeboo (Bankruptcy Petition No. 1-23-43614-nhl)

Dear Judge Lord:

I have only recently learned that Your Honor had directed me to appear at a telephonic hearing in connection with the above-referenced matter. I would never disregard an order to appear issued by any judge and I certainly did not ignore Your Honor's orders. The simple fact is I only received one notice and it was not delivered until well after the hearing date.

Attached hereto is a copy of the envelope that was delivered to my office in connection with the order for me to appear on May 29, 2024. Please note the stamp placed on the envelope by the United States Postal Service that reads "RETURN FOR BETTER ADDRESS". I have no idea why the aforementioned stamp was placed on this envelope; the address on the envelope is correct as written. Nevertheless, the envelope took an unnecessary extended trip through the bowels of the Postal Service and was not delivered to me until after the hearing date had passed. I do not recall receiving a second notice.

As Your Honor is aware, I am not counsel to the Debtor, Theodore Leeboo, in this proceeding, nor am I counsel to any other party to the proceeding. Indeed, I was not aware of the existence of this case until, during the course of a hearing in an unrelated case, Your Honor asked if I was "ducking" the Orders directing my appearance in this matter. Having reviewed the docket in this case, I learned that Mr. Leeboo commenced this proceeding pro se by filing a Petition on or about October 5, 2023.

To the extent that Your Honor has ordered my appearance to explain why I would file a Notice of Appearance on behalf of Mr. Leeboo in a New York State Supreme Court proceeding captioned Leeboo v. Cohan, et al. (Sup. Ct., Kings County, Index No. 8560/2015) (the "State Court Action") during the pendency of this proceeding, the answer is simple – I had no knowledge of Mr. Leeboo having filed a bankruptcy petition.

Hon. Nancy Hershey Lord
July 17, 2024

The State Court Action was commenced in or about June 2015; eight years prior to Mr. Leeboo filing for bankruptcy. When the State Court Action was filed, Mr. Leeboo was represented by the Yvette Dudley Law Group, P.C. In 2019, Mr. Leeboo retained new counsel, Rodriguez-McCloskey, PLLC. In or about April 2023, the Rodriguez-McCloskey firm moved to be relieved as counsel for Mr. Leeboo. In or about July 2023, the court granted the Rodriguez-McCloskey firm's motion.

In or about late February 2024, Mr. Leeboo was referred to me by another client. It was my understanding that Mr. Leeboo and his wife had been the victims of deed fraud and that the State Court Action, which had been pending for nine years, had been commenced to regain title to two properties located in Brooklyn, New York. At no time did Mr. Leeboo inform me that he had filed for protection under the Bankruptcy Code in October 2023.

On or about March 6, 2024, I filed a Notice of Appearance in the State Court Action on behalf of Mr. Leeboo and his wife. As Your Honor will note from the attached printout of the State Court Action docket, the Notice of Appearance was the only document I filed in the State Court Action. The relationship between Mr. Leeboo and me broke down almost immediately after I filed my appearance and I never appeared in court on his behalf, nor did I draft any motions. I was in the process of preparing a motion, to be brought by Order to Show Cause, to be relieved as counsel for the Leeboos when I learned of the existence of this bankruptcy proceeding. I found myself between a rock and a hard place. Had I known the Mr. Leeboo had filed for bankruptcy in October 2023 I would never have agreed to represent him in March 2024; however, I did not believe that it would be appropriate for me to file a motion to be relieved as counsel in the State Court Action because that would be a violation of the automatic stay. At this point, I look for the Court's guidance on how to proceed to be relieved as counsel in the State Court Action.

Please accept my deepest apologies for failing to appear at the previously scheduled hearings as the Court directed. As set forth above, one notice was delivered after the scheduled hearing date and the other notice was never received. It was certainly not my intent to disrespect the Court or anyone else who appeared at the hearings, and I apologize for any inconvenience my absence may have caused. Of course, I will be present for the hearing scheduled to be held on August 8, 2024.

If Your Honor has any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,
